

The West Hoathly Local History Archive

The Document Title List

as at January 2016

Each of the 507 documents has a four digit identifying number usually corresponding to the order in which they were received.

The original material is mostly stored in ring binders each holding fifty documents.

Books, pamphlets, a few large items, boxes, folders, tapes and discs are store separately.

These are marked as follows:

Books B, pamphlets P, boxes BX, discs CD, or DVD, audio tapes AT, video tapes VT, folders F and large items L.

The Pat Stone Collection is contained in a separate ring binder and located with Mr Stone.

All documents have been scanned except where copies exist of books and pamphlets.

All scanned documents include a DOCUMENT DESCRIPTION containing key facts and words.

A master Word document called ALL DOCUMENT DESCRIPTIONS contains all of these descriptions.

If small enough a Word version of each document is also included in ALL DOCUMENT DESCRIPTIONS.

After a preliminary search of the list below a more detailed one can be made in ALL DOCUMENT DESCRIPTIONS.

Having thus identified the specific document required it can be found in the DOCUMENTS FILE.
